Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

The campaign for a library at Camptonville proceeds with gathering momentum. Of some 200 voters in that community, we are informed that 180 odd have signed the petition to the board of Yuba county supervisors. The engine which drives this campaign toward what we believe will be a successful goal is the Camptonville Womens Club, whose endeavors have been warmly commended in this column. Yesterday came the following note:

Nevada City Nugget.

Dear H. M. L.,

The following is a copy of a very lovely and appropriate letter which I received this morning from Mr. Lee Evans of the Lee Evans Lumber Co.:

Mrs. Rita Davis, President.

The Woman's Club of Camptonville.

Dear Mrs. Davis:

May I too "carry a spear" in your crusade, in our remote section of the county for the rural library?

I remember seeing my mother smooth tenderly a piece of calico on old Bill Henderson's counter, and then, as if putting aside a temptation, firmly turn away.

Her every purchase had to stand the acid test of "Is it necessary; could I do without it?" before it was finally made. Yet, somehow—someway—she contrived to have always with us the books of the ages, the priceless gems of literature that were to mold in that certain way our desires for the good and the sound in though and in character. And as long as she lived, good books were always on our family table—an escape from the burdens of the day—food for the spiritual hunger that could not be denied.

So I know that were she here, she would feel that I should have done less than my duty were I to fail to enlist my support in this most worthy endeavor. No trifling cost, such as this essential movement will entail, is to be measured against the emoluments that must accrue to the citizenship, through the association of good and proper books.

I am confident that the far greater majority of taxpayers are no less desirous than myself to see Yuba county institute the County Library.

Yours very truly

(Signed) LEE EVANS.

And many thanks to you, H. M. L., for your fine co-operation in our very worth-while cause.

RITA DAVIS.

It is pleasant to read in the note of Mr. Evans the reflection of that cultural homelife, which his mother provided among the things necessary to her children's upbringing. That ability to express in a few words so splendid a picture of a home in which books were justly valued, bears witness in itself that the mothers ideal was realized in so far as ideals are realized on earth.

The city election nears and many citizens evince a lively interest in the various candidacies. One candidate is making a house to house canvass presenting his cards and his platform. Others have used the columns of this newspaper to indicate the policies which they would follow in event of election. Anything that helps the voters to know their candidates and to make an intelligent choice of three from the seven in the running, is of course a good thing.

While there is a wide interest in this election, we wish once again to call the attention of the people to the fact that the election will take place Tuesday, April 14. Every registered voter should cast his or her ballot. As a rule when city governments fail to function smartly in the interest of the entire community, it is because the home owners, the sober hard-working folks who make the town what it is and pay the bulk of the taxes, fail to take an interest in the municipal election. The city council is the city's managerial board. Its decisions touch all lives and all pocket books. It would be a pity if the apathy of voters on April 14, permitted the election of candidates to city council who fail to maintain the high standards of that body for many years past. The freedom of democracy carries a responsibility. That is to get out and vote for the candidate that you think will serve your city best.

Mr. Fred Cole, of Pasadena, and Mr. Morris Talbot, of New York City, were Nevada City visitors on Monday and Tuesday. The men are interested in mining properties in Willow Valley and Gold Flat, east and west of Nevada City.

INITIATIVE ON SINGLE TAX MAY KILL GAS TAX

(By RALPH H. TAYLOR)

California's leading legal and fiscal authorities, as well as its good roads' enthusiasts, have a new problem to ponder and new cause for official headaches, as the result of discovery of a 'bug' in the so-called 'Single Tax' Act, which will be submitted to voters at the general election in November.

The 'bug' provisio, as many attorneys interpret it, would automatically abolish the state gas tax, in addition to the sales tax, if the 'Single Tax' Act should receive voter-approval.

Briefly sketched, the legal complications — which threaten the state's $40,000,000 annual revenue for road construction and maintenance—are as follows:

The so-called 'Single Tax' Act, which would substitute land taxes for the sales tax, provides for the repeal of all sales taxes in any form "created after January 1, 1933."

Admittedly, the gas tax is a form of sales tax. The attorneys concur on that point.

But inasmuch as the original 2-cent gas tax was enacted in 1923, followed by adoption of an additional 1-cent tax in 1927, it was at first believed that the saving clause "created after January 1, 1933" would make the sales tax repeal provision ineffective insofar as the gas tax is concerned.

The "saving clause" came under serious question this week, however, when some enterprising lawyer unearthed the fact that the present 3-cent gas tax was enacted by the 1933 legislature—several months "after January 1." Prior to that, the state had had a 2-cent gas tax and a 1-cent gas tax, in separate acts, but the 1933 legislature abolished the old acts and adopted a new 3-cent tax as a matter of routine business.

State's attorneys are frankly in a quandry as to how the courts would interpret the trick provisio. As the matter stands, they agree that the gas tax is a sales tax. They also agree that the 'Single Tax' if adopted, would repeal all sales taxes enacted after January 1, 1033. And they further agree that the present gas tax, technically at least, was enacted after that date.

Complicating the problem is the fact that the courts can not rule on an act until it is enacted. In short, the voter "must go it blind"! And piling complications on complications, a new gas tax could not be enacted by the legislature if the 'Single Tax' proposal knocked out the present levy, as the measure specifically prohibits "the imposition of any new sales taxes."

Still another 'bug' has bobbed up in the 'Single Tax' proposal.

By its repeal of "all sales taxes in any form," it would abolish all liquor taxes in the state—thereby causing another $10,000,000 loss in revenue.

To California farmers, home-owners and common property taxpayers generally, the 'Single Tax' represents the most dangerous tax proposal which has been placed before the voters in many years.

It would at least double and probably treble the tax load on land, according to the admission of its proponents.

Any farmer in doubt can figure it out for himself.

In addition to the present burden on land, there would be added $65,000,000 annually now raised by the sales tax; $10,000,000 now secured through liquor taxes; other millions (amount undetermined) now provided by the tax on tangible personal property and, in all probability $40,000,000 in highway funds now collected under the gasoline tax.

Even more dangerous, the proposal removes all tax restrictions on land—making the sky the limit for future taxation!

The farmer or home owner who stops to wonder concerning the excuse for such attempted tax discrimination will find the answer in the words of Henry George, father of the 'Single Tax' movement in the United States.

"I have taught and shall continue to teach," said Henry George, "that private ownership of land is against natural justice."

Miss Jennie Bertlin, clerk at Bolton's Variety store, is confined to her home with the flu.

INJUNCTION DENIED IN SAN JUAN WATER SUIT

Judge Raglan Tuttle on Tuesday denied an injunction restraining mining men on San Juan Ridge from using water in the Pine Grove reservoir for mining purposes. Lindley C. Morton, plaintiff charged that the San Juan Ridge Water Users Association unlawfully diverted water from the reservoir. The plaintiff argued that the reservoir water were to be for domestic and irrigation purposes only. The defendants' demurrer was also overruled.

TO MINE 2 MILES OF YUBA RIVERS

In recent weeks rights have been obtained for dredging two miles of the Yuba River below the junction of the North, Middle, and South streams. Ed De Golia, Maxwell Milton and Elwin Stebbins, of San Francisco, have obtained options to mine the channel from Parks Bar bridge upstream to the site of the proposed mining debris dam.

Plans call for installing a deep digging dredge at a cost of $500,000 to mine the ground which they estimate will extend over a period of six to eight years. The $7,000,000 debris dam planned by the government just above the holdings will protect the dredge.

A test of the gravel has been made and titles cleared. Options were obtained from E. F. Forbes, Hazel Forbes, the Mammoth Gold Dredging company, the Goldfields Consolidated. the Gunning interests, and the Yuba Consolidated Goldfields, on a royalty basis.

Scores of gold snipers have moved to the Parks Bar bridge on the banks of the Yuba river in the last few spring days to start working the gravel. It is reported the new leasors have given orders for all snipers to vacate the district above the bridge.

COUNCIL CANDIDATE IN APPEAL TO VOTERS

To the Voters of Nevada City:

Spring is here and election is close, so ask yourself if you were going to have a sewer put in, or a gas pipe laid, or a basement dug out, or a garden planted, or your front lawn spaded, or your sidewalk repaired, or your road graded—What would be the first thing that would come to your mind? Would it be a retired banker, or a baker, or a grocer, or a mining engineer, or a dentist, or an automobile salesman, or a gas station tender, or a smiling man with a fine personality. I think not.

The first thing you would say is, "I want a working man—someone with experience — someone who knows how to do these things." So get next to yourselves like a lot of other townspeople of California, who have lower taxes yet have money in their treasury, and get something done. Be like the big mining man when he comes to town. He will say, "If we want this thing to pay, we will have to have a man who knows how to run things." So he gets an old miner with experience. That is what pays in dividends.

Vote for a miner in a mining town. I will not promise what I'll do, will do my best.

Yours,

ALFRED HADDY.

ROTARIANS PLAN BIG BERKELEY MEET IN MAY

The tentative program of entertainment for the 21st Annual Second District Conference of Rotary International, to be held in Berkeley, May 25, 26 and 27, was released this week by Conference Manager Clifford B. Radston, Secretary of the Berkeley Rotary Club.

Entertainment for the three day conclave, which is expected to be attended by 3500 Rotary delegates and their wives of California, Nevada, Hawaii and Mexico, includes:

An International night at the International House on the University of California campus, a classical musical entertainment with world-famous guest artists, a bridge tournament, sports, dances, a tea and fashion show for the Rotary-Anns, the annual Second District golf tournament and an inspection tour of the two San Francisco bay bridges.

A floor show will be held in conjunction with the Governor's Ball on Tuesday evening, May 26, in the men's gymnasium on the U. C. campus. This entertainment will be in honor of District Governor George W. MacLellan of Santa Barbara.

Past District Governor Charles D. Heywood who is chairman of the Host Club Committees, announces that Robert Hill, Rotary's International President last year, will be the International's official representative at the Berkeley Conference.

Manager Radston reports that more than 1,000 reservation for the conference have been received at conference headquarters and that nine clubs in California report 100 per cent registration for the May meeting. Speakers for the conference will be announced by District Governor MacLellan within the next two weeks.

SACRAMENTANS TO ENTERTAIN TWO CHAMBERS

Fred Conner, president of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday announced that meetings will be held every first and third Mondays of the month instead of the second and fourth, as originally intended. This change is made in deference to the fact that Women's Civic Club meets and has met for many years on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month, and President Conner hopes to enroll a considerable membership of women in the Chamber of Commerce.

Accordingly the next meeting of the chamber is set for next Monday evening.

A stellar event in chamber of commerce and civic affairs will be the visit of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce to the twin cities on Wednesday evening, April 15. The visiting chambers brings its musicians, concert artists, and entertainers and promises a fine hour and a half program. A joint committee of the Nevada City and Grass Valley chamber endeavored to hold the event in Nevada City but owing to the lack of adequate facilities here, the Bret Harte Inn was finally selected as the place.

The affair will be a dinner event at which the Nevada City and Grass Valley chambers will extend a hearty welcome to the Sacramento contingent. Secretary Dudley of the Sacramento chamber will accompany the group and his dynamic personality and inspirational talks are always deeply interesting. The affair is public and both men and women are invited. The dinner will cost $1.00 per plate.

PWA DIRECTOR APPROVES AWARD OF HI CONTRACT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, through A. D. Wilder, acting state director, today approved the award of a contract by the Board of Education of the Nevada high school district, of Nevada county, for the building of two new units of reinforced concrete and the remodeling of the existing unit of the school building. This much needed improvement to a school designed in 1912 to house 100 pupils (having a present attendance of 250) was made possible for the district through the allotment of a grant of $31,091 by the Public Works Administration. Total cost will be approximately $77,091.

Contracts, as approved by PWA for this work which will furnish employment for 27 skilled and unskilled workers for 190 days, will be let to three San Francisco firms: Rollin E. Meyer, general contract; Martin J. Reeves plumbing, heating and ventilating; and the United Electric Company will do the electrical work.

The completed building, as designed by Architect Mooser and Lindley of San Francisco, will consist of classrooms built on either side of an open patio between the new combination auditorium gymnasium and the remodelled existing structure.

BILL DAVIS TALKS AT ROTARY LUNCH

Nevada City Rotary Club was entertained at its luncheon meeting yesterday at the National Hotel by Bill Davis, owner of the Gold Pan Lodge on the Downieville highway.

Mr. Davis was introduced by Ted Janis, chairman of the day. Mr. Davis gave reminiscences of his foreign travels and also discussed the Downieville highway and up country conditions which greatly interested the club.

President Odegaard announced that on Monday, April 9th, the Grass Valley club would entertain District Governor George B. McClelland and asked that all Rotarians from Nevada City attend at Grass Valley in honor of Governor McClelland.

FRENCH CORRAL TOWNSEND CLUB TO HAVE PICNIC

(By KATHERINE BRAITHWAITE)

The French Corral Townsend Club has completed plans for a gigantic picnic to be held at Olymphia Lake on Sunday April 19. This popular resort is between Grass Valley and Nevada City and will be convenient for all of the foot hill towns and the surrounding valley cities.

A special invitation is extended to each and every Townsend Club in California to pack their lunches and attend this huge friendship gathering. There will be a charge of twenty five cents to enter the picnic grounds. For this small amount there will be an abundance of free coffee, two hours of amateur vaudeville, many games and fine prizes, and dancing until midnight.

There will be twelve gas plates in operation and free use of the community kitchen. For those who do not wish to pack their lunches there will be lunch stands and soft drink counters. Plenty of boats will be available for excursions on the lake and many oother forms of amusement.

Three good speakers will be present at this picnic. Their names have not been learned as yet but there is assurance that there will be a noted speaker from state headquarters and two lesser lights.

Now is the time for all good Townsendites to come to the aid of the Plan. Everyone intersted can lend a hand and make this picnic one of the most successful affairs ever held in this section of California.

"ROVERING" FOR SCOUTS DISCUSSION TOPIC

J. S. Wilson, who is head of all out-door Boy Scout training for the British Isles, will be brought to the Pacific Coast to meet with local council scouters, primarily to discuss Rovering, a part of the new Senior program. Mr. Wilson will be in Sacramento at the Scout Lodge on the American River Wednesday evening April 8th to meet scouters of Tahoe Area and other neighboring councils.

This announcement was made by Harris Ricksecker, local scout executive who returned several days ago from a National Scout Executive Training School at French Lick, Indiana, attended by 745 Scouters. The convention slogan was "Scouting Marches On."

"I found by comparison much of the scout work of Tahie Council above the averag of the country particularly camping facilities and scout advancement. Membership should be increased. We can reach more boys but first we must have adult leadership."

To meet this need two informational adult scout training courses of six meetings each will be held next week in both Grass Valley and Roseville. Then it is planned to secure at least six new troops.

This week the Scout Leaders Association will meet to arrange plans and program for the council's spring camporee, an outdoor meeting where scouts by patrols camp under their boy leaders. The camporee dates have been tentatively set for May 15 and 16. Last year 200 scouts and leaders attended the spring camporee.

Attorney John Lewis of this city went to Berkeley Thursday to attend to business matters.

CITY COUNCIL STUDIES MANY LOCAL PROBLEMS

Mr. A. J. Adams of the Valley Electric Motor Works on York street presented a communication offering to place an electric light at the corner of his shop if the city would pay 50 cents per month for electricity and the nightwatchman turn the light off. The offer was accepted by the council.

A discussion of city sewer lines and water mains in the Washington school yard, was brought up; excavation for the basement of the new school building is expected to start Monday.

The Chamber of Commerce sent a communication to the city council offering to assist in the preparation for July Fourth celebration.

Paving of sidewalks on several streets was discussed. Sidewalks on Sacramento street one of the main traveled streets in the city from the Gold Run bridge to the Plaza is to be the next project and will be begun immediately, stated City Engineer R. Fraser.

The council decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens for next Thursday night, April 9, to discuss and make plans for the Fourth of July celebration.

They also decided to have a man to shut off the water of delinquent consumers. He to be paid from the fines collected.

One Californian, in Wilmington, won $150,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes last week. Another, in Martinez, was enriched by $20,000. Several took $500 consolation prizes. In all, $2,800,000 came to Americans.

These winners are, of course, extremely lucky people, and it is easy to understand their emotional reactions at having such large sums dropped in their laps. Plain stunned amazement struck some. The Martinez winner said she would believe her good fortune when she saw the money in her hands. Some shouted their happiness. Others wept for sheer joy.

Now it is all very well for those to be deliriously happy, and nobody begrudges them that. But there is also no reason for those who do not gamble, or those who gambled and lost, to feel particularly envious.

Especially for those large winners this newly found wealth will prove no bed of roses, what with racketeeers, mountebacks, swindlers and quacks of all sorts after a cut. And then there is the old truth about money — easy come, easy go.

Somehow it seems the fellow who works for his money and has only a little to spend enjoys it more than these do their thousands. For his is the fruit of his own efforts and achievements, the value of his own long hours of labor and sacrifice.

"Home Making Is Fun When You Learn How Easy It Can Be"

-- Jane Barton

There are real adventures to be had in home making—real thrills to be had in conquering knotty problems of household economics. There is far more romance in a modern kitchen, well equipped and attractive in aupearance than ever lurked in grandmother's high ceilinged, smoky, cobwebbed log cabin cookhouse. There isn't a woman in the world today who would trade her efficient electric or gas stove for the temperamental roaring cast iron range of the eighteeen fifties.

Nowhere has progress left a more indelible mark than in th field of household appliances during the last few years. Gone forever—or rapidly going—are the back breaking low tin wash tubs. The modern housewife knows that she can save both time and effort with a modern washing machine. Long rows of sad irons under the kitchen stove are rapidly being replaced by modern ironers, doing away with lame backs, tired arms and aching feet. Science with a magic brush is covering homes with paint which is at once durable and attractive and which adds years to the useful life of roofs and houses. Modern bathrooms too with proper lighting and inexpensive and attractive fittings are more sanitary as well as more convenient.

Jane Barton has the happy knack of telling home makers about these modern up-to-date milepost along the road to progress in simple and easily understandable language. That is why housewives flock by thousands to her colorful Homecraft Institutes. This year's program featurs "Adventures in Home Making." Every day Jane's deft fingers will make befor the eyes of her audience dozens of recipes and while she works she will tell you how you too can enjoy the zest and thrill of some of these adventures in home making. The information and ideas that Mrs. Barton passes on have been gathered from the thousands upon thousands of housewives who attend her programs and who write to her about the highlights of their adventures in home making. Practically all of this years program was planned in answer to requests made by California housewives.

Mrs. Barton is bringing the Homecraft Institute to Nevada City, April 22, 23 and 24. Her exciting program will be given in the Nevada Theatre, from 2 to 4:30.

The Nevada City Nugget and the Pacific Rural Press are jointly sponsoring this important event. Every homemaker is urged to attend. Admission is absolutely free. Ample opportunity to ask questions is provided, and entire informality is to be the keynote of every conference. Don't forget three afternoons, April 22, 23 and 24—2 to 4:30 at Nevada Theatre.

GRANDSON, PORTRAIT PAINTER

Dr. David Reeder of this city has received the news that his twenty-three year old grandson of Fort Worth, Texas, has been proposed for membership in the International Portrait Painters association. He is the youngest person ever proposed for membership in this association. Young Reeder will sail for London on May 15 and will spend a year in the art galleries of Europe. The young man has been sponsored by the famous portrait painter, Mayman Adams.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB

Mrs. Minnie C. Oates and Miss Dewey Culp of Marysville, regional representatives of the Southwestern district of the American Federation of Soroptimist Clubs visited Nevada City and Grass Valley Tuesday with the interest of forming a club in the two cities.

FOUR CASES OF WHISKEY SEIZED

Four cases of whiskey delivered to Frank Cartoscelli at the Old Brewery Cafe in Nevada City within the last few days, were seized by Inspector Russel B. Farley, of state board of equalization, on the charge they did not bear liquor excise stamps, as provided under the alcoholic beverage control act. Nardi Brothers of San Francisco delivered the whiskey. Mr. Farley stated the whiskey was confiscated by the State of California.

Two more cases, delivered by the Hoover truck service of Sacramento to Albert Fantini of Grass Valley, were also seized when it was found they did not have liquor excise stamps.

A search is being made of all Sacramento warehouses for any liquor that does not bear Federal liquor excise stamps.

Mr. Farley, who had been working on a case in Sacramento, returned to his home in Nevada City Wednesday evening.

C. E. Winney, poultryman on the Tahoe-Ukiah highway, accompanied by his daughter, Elsie, has returned to Nevada City after visiting his mother, Mrs. C. W. Winney, who is seriously ill in Bakersfield. Miss Dorothy Winney remained in Bakersfield with her grandmother.

SANTA BARBARA WINS TRAFFIC SAFETY AWARD

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Santa Barbara county today has the distinction of being California's outstanding leader in reduction of motor vehicle fatalities on rural highways.

Credited with a 1935 decrease of 24 deaths from motor vehicle accidents compared with fatalities of 1934, the coast county has been honored by award to its California Highway Patrol unit of the state chamber of commerce trophy annually presented for reduction of highway deaths. The award was announced today by E. Raymond Cato, chief of the highway patrol.

Alameda county gained second in the reduction of deaths on rural highways, listing 17 fewer deaths in 1935 than in 1934. Kern county was third with 15 fewer deaths, Stanislaus was fourth with 13, San Joaquin was fifth with 12 and San Luis Obispo was sixth with ten.

Los Angeles county showed the greatest increase in rural highway fatalities, in 1935, recording 36 more deaths from motor vehicle accidents than in 1934. San Diego county received the second biggest black mark. with an increase of 20 deaths. Yolo county listed an increase of 12 fatalitis and Santa Clara, Tulare and Ventura shared fourth place with 11 more deaths each.

Excepting San Francisco county, which has no rural highways within its boundaries, and Alpine, Contra Costa and Tehema, which listed no change in fatalities in 1935 compared with 1934, the remainder of California's 58 counties made the following good and bad records, according to department of motor vehicles records:

Increase in deaths in 1935 compared with 1934:

Monterey 9; Sutter 7; Mono 6; Fresno 6; Orange 6; Calaveras 4; Sonoma 3; Yuba 3; Amador 2; Lassen 2; Madera 2; Marin 2; Plumas 2; Riverside 2; Solano 2 Kings 1; Merced 1; Modoc 1; Nevada 1; Tuolumne 1.

Decrease in deaths in 1935 compared with 1934:

San Bernardino 9; Sacramento 9; Mariposa 8; Lake 7; Imperial 7; San Mateo 7; Butte 6; Shasta 5; Inyo 5; Santa Cruz 5; Placer 6; Mendocino 4; Napa 4; Humboldt 3; Siskiyou 3; San Benito 2; Colusa 2; Glenn 2; Trinity 2; Del Norte 1; El Dorado 1; Sierra 1.

The total of 1391 motor vehicle fatalities recorded in 1935 on the state's rural highways was a decrease of 25 compared with the previous year The majority of rural highway fatalities, according to Chief Cato, occurred between intersections on the open road, 1092 or 78.5 per cent of the 1391 deaths of the year having taken place in this area. Intersections were the scene of 212, or 15.24 per cent, of the fatalities, and railroad crossings, bridges and piers, etc., were the places for 24 deaths resulting from motor vehicle accidents.

A total of 966 of the rural deaths in 1935 occurred on arteries of the state highway system and 425 were recorded on the county roads.

Candy Sale

In an effort to raise funds for the purchase of baseball uniforms, the Block N. C. Society of the Nevada City high school held a school luncheon Wednesday at noon. A dance was held following, music for which was furnished by an orchestra made up of students and headed by B. C. Barron.

Such luncheons have proven popular at the local high school, and the menu provided by the athletic society was tasty enough to attract a large number of students.

Girl's Conference

Nine delegates were present from the Nevada City high at the annual Odler Girls' Conference held Saturday and Sunday at Richardson Springs. The theme of this year's conference was "Anchors," and the guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Wallace. Fred Duckless, district Christian Association secretary had charge of the affair.

Those who attended from the local high school were Alberta Watters, Fern McClure, Amy Lou McCraney, Cecelia Woods, Catherine Stephens, Ruth Curnow, Joan Grant, and Pauline Rozynski. Miss Thelma Peterson, faculty member at the local high school, accompanied the group. During the conference, Ruth Curnow was elected secretary, to act during the conference next year.

1936 Baseball

Nevada City high will play its first game of the 1936 season tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when it meets the Grass Valley Miners on the neighboring diamond. The Grass Valley outfit has broken even on two games played this season, and with no previous dope on the locals, the outcome is hard to foresee.

Coach Barron has been giving the boys a thorough workout every evening, and they are looking forward to success in their first diamond venture this year.

A probable line up includes Lotz, as catcher; Stephens, pitcher, Wilde, first; Schiffner, second, Steger, third; W. Mullis, short. The outfield will be chosen from Santinelli, Warnecke, Polkinghorn, Willard, Tobiassen, Stevens, and Joyal.

Track-Meet Scores

Final results of the recent interclass track meet held at the local high school have been posted, the senior class having taken the meet with 41 1-3 points. The standing of the other classes was as follows: Juniors, 34-23; sophomores, 5 2-3; freshmen, 4 1-3.

In the 100 yard dash, Matt Burgen pulled in a head of the field, his time being 10.5. Harleth Brock took the 220 and was clocked at 25.-4. The 440 was run in 59.3 seconds by Mullis, and the 600 in 1.32 by Warnecke. Phil Joyal captured honors in the mile for the juniors.

Walt Mullis covered 23 feet, 6 inches in the hop-step-jump, and took the event with ease. A 47 inch high jump put Ken Younkin in first place in that event, while the shot-put honors went to "Son" Steger with a 49 foot, 6 inch mark.

The relay team of the senior class won the medly relay, their time being 2:41.8. This team was composed of Schiffner, Stephens, Mullis and Lopez.

The individual scoring honors for the afternoon were awarded to Mullis, a senior, who scored 11 points, and to Burgen, a junior, who chalked up 8 points.

A division meet is being planned for some time after Easter vacation.

Principal's Conference

Principal H. E. Kjorlie of the Nevada City high school will be present at the annual Secondary School Principal's Conference to be held during the latter part of this week at Pasadena. Mr. Kjorlie left Wednesday evening for the affair and will return following the adjournment of the sessions on Saturday.

During the confernce, Principal Kjorlie will present a report of statistics on small high schools of the state and nation.

Subjects of importance to be discussed at the meeting this year will include graduation requirements, teaching procedures, and general problems of daily high school life. Reports on the findings of the committees on these subjects will be made to the general conference, and much material of value will be brought back to high schools through out the state.

Candy Sale

A candy sale will be held at the local high school during noon hour today, the sale being sponsored by the Home Economics Club. Proceeds from the sale will be used for the fashion show which will be given at the high school in the spring. Miss Bartholomew, home economics head, has charge of the sale.

Those who are working to make the sale a success are as follows: Anita Lako, Laverne Willard, Genevieve Vranish, Dorothy Paxson, Edna Uhrig, Gilda Botelli, and Fern Rockefeller.

RED CROSS AIDS 450,000 VICTIMS OF FLOOD AREA

SAN FRANCISCO, Aphil 2.—New flooded areas in Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana have brought the total number of stricken families now receiving Red Cross aid in Eastern States to 107,329 numbering more than 450,000 persons, A. L. Schafer, Red Cross manager in the Pacific Area, is advised by Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the National Red Cross.

While Chairman Grayson is making a personal survey of the 13 flood torn states Red Cross chapters and individuals everywhere are responding to his appeal to increase by fifty per cent all original flood relief quotas, the need having more than doubled since the first call for assistance.

Pennsylvania heads the states in the number of relief operations, 49,-969 families being assisted. Many othr thousands of refugees are receiving help in Connecticut, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Vermont, West Virginia Indiana, and Virginia. Ninety five counties areaffected in the foregoing states.

More than 300 Red Cross nurses are caring for sick persons in emergency shelters, in districts threatened with scarlet fever and measles, or in handling inoculations against typhoid fever in the devastated areas.

Twenty nine railroads in the East Central states are shipping food, clothing and medical supplies, without cost, for use in the flood areas on authorization of the American Red Cross.

Mr. C. Madaris, of the Larsen barber shop, moved his family from Walnut Grove to Nevada City to make their home.

Mrs. Charles Leiter is visiting Mr. Leiter's mother, Mrs. E. T. Leiter. Mrs. Leiter plans to attend the flower show while there.

PALM LEAGUE WILL BROADCAST SERVICES

On Sunday morning at 8:30 a. m. the members of the Nevada City Epworth League will gather in the parlors of the Methodist church to hear a Palm Sunday League program broadcast over station KSFO. Harry Akers and Paul Campbell, first vice-president and field secretary of the California Conference respectively, will have charge of this half hour of morning watch service. It is expected that a radio audience of some several thousand California Leaguers will listen to this service.

Following the program, a breakfast will be served the local Leaguers. Flossie Angove, president of the local chapter, has chosen an active committee and is being assisted by Mrs. H. H. Buckner.

Rev. John Telfer, who owns property in Nevada City, has come to Grass Valley to visit his son, Capt. Waldo Telfer. Rev. Telfer is having some improvements made on his Nevada City property.

A Glimpse of Building Activity

VOL. 1. APRIL 3, 1936. No. 14.

Paragraph from Business Week of March 7th, 1936. The Westinghouse Electrical and Mfg. Co. offers a square shaped 40 gal. electric water heater which has all the wiring and water connections at the bottom and is fully concealed, is insulated with a 3 3-4 in. jacket of SHREDDED REDWOOD BARK, etc.

We are not of course advertising the water tank but we do want to call your attention to the fact that this large company is using the same SHREDDED REDWOOD BARK for the best insulation, that we have in stock and can tell you how to apply to the best advantage.

Many new homes are in prospect for the coming summer with some of them already starting. If you are going to build your new home soon we suggest that you get in touch with your contractor and with us and have the details worked out so that work may proceed as soon as good weather prevails.

Contractor Rollin E. Meyers has an office and utility building erected on the sight of the new elementary school and with his Foreman Mr. McLean is at work laying out the job. This job will give employment to a number of men well into the fall of the year.

New ideas in finish hardware, new finishes for the bath room, new designs in Pabco Mastipave industrial floor coverings and many other items of interest to the builder are available at our office. We will be glad to have you pay us a visit and discuss your problems.

Miss Beth Young is Guest of Honor

Mrs. Virginia Browning, of Boulder street, entertained Miss Beth Young of Park avenue, fiancee of Walter Johnston, with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening.

The group of fourteen friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Browning and went to the home of Miss Young completely surprising her.

Dutch whist was played for a time with scores being made by Misses Kate Greenway, Irene Browning and Beth Young. The card tables were then decorated with Easter motifs and delicious refreshments served. An Easter basket filled with many pretty and useful gifts was brought out and presented to Miss Young.

Miss Esther Tremaine Hostess to Juniors

Miss Esther Tremaine of the high school faculty was hostess to the members of the junior class at her home last evening. After an evening of games the young folks enjoyed refreshmentRs served by the hostess.

ORVAL OVERALL NEW DIRECTOR FOR AUTO ASSN.

Election of Orval Overall, Fresno bank executive and former major league baseball star, as a director of the California State Automobile Association was announced today by the motorists organization. Overall succeeds to a vacancy on the board resulting from the death last year of William A. Sutherland of Fresno. The association board of twenty one directors, who serve without compensation, consists of civic leaders and men of affairs chosen from various parts of northern and central California. Overall's election maintains the representation of the San Joaquin Valley area, other directors from that section being John R. Graham of Merced and E. R. Hawke of Modesto.

Overall has been manager and vice president of the Fresno branch of the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles since 1933 and had previously been in charge of the institution's real estate holdings in the San Joaquin Valley since 1921. He has been active in Fresno civic affairs and is a member of the University Club, a director of the Sunnyside Golf Club and is prominent in fraternal circles.

Overall achieved lasting fame in the sports world as a member of the championship Chicago Cubs, pitching in four world series of 1906, 1907, 1908 and 1910. He had previously played with the Cincinnati Reds in 1905, after entering professional baseball with the 1904 pennant winning Tacoma club of the Pacific Coast League. After the 1910 season Overall retired from baseball and returned to California, engaging in mining and farming until he entered the banking field in 1921.

Retaining his interest in baseball, Overall was instrumental in promoting and building the Frank Chance Baseball Field in Fresno, and is now president of the enterprise. He is also interested in aviation and is a licensed pilot. Overall is a native of Visalia and is a graduate of the University of California, where he was captain of the football and baseball teams in 1903.

BANK OF AMER. NOW NINTH IN WORLD RANKING

California's largest bank has moved a step upward in the ranking of leading banks of the world, it was disclosed today in the first showing of total resources of the world's ten largest bank at the close of 1935.

Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, with total resources of $1,277,419,000 as of December 31, 1935, was the world's ninth largest bank, exceeded in size only by London and New York branch banks. At the close of the previous year, Bank of America was in tenth place, which is now occupied by the Deutsche Bank of Berlin.

Largest bank in the world is the Midland Bank of London, with total resources of $2,435,544,000. The largest American bank, the Chase National Bank of New York, with total resources of $2,350,549,000 stands in second place among the world's banks.

London banks have third and fourth places among the world's largest banks. The December 31, 1935 showing gave Lloyd's Bank, Ltd., and Barclays Banks these positions, with total resources of $2,288,196,000 and $2,203,741.000 respectively.

The fifth largest bank in the world is the National City Bank of New York, with resources of $1,880,679,000. The largest single stockholder of this bank is Transamerica Corporation, which owns Bank of America N. T. & S. A.

Sixth, seventh and eighth places in the ranking of the world's banks are held by Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Westminister Bank and National Provincial Bank of London.

CREATED BY BANK OF AMERICA LOANS MADE THROUGH F. H. A.

Plumbers... painters... carpenters... these craftsmen and many others have benefited in a large measure by the home loans which Californians have made through Bank of America during past months. To date, Bank of America home loans, made under the provisions of the Federal Housing Act, total more than 32 million dollars*. Glance at the accompanying chart and see just how this vast amount of money turned into the building industry in California has benefited labor engaged directly in building, repairing, and modernizing California homes, farm buildings, office buildings, stores, and other structures.

If you are planning to buy or build your own home, FIRST see Bank of America. A Bank of America long-term home loan up to 20 years gives you financing terms which meet your budget as easily as rent. Now is a good time to build the home you have always desired.
